

The Coach

You firmly believe that “practice makes perfect”, and have the ability to harness SLS tools to help students attain mastery.

At work

You like to get students to try a task, modify it slightly, then get them to try again to ensure that they have developed the skill.

At home

Outside of work, you probably practice what you preach by training hard at a sport or a skill by dedicating hours and hours of deliberate practice.

Favorite SLS tool

The Progressive quiz and Auto-graded quiz are your go-to, since students receive feedback automatically with submissions.

Helping others

Sharing your quizzes on the Community Gallery that include detailed feedback to help students understand why some options are incorrect.
