

The Discussant

You have unrivalled levels of energy for discussions and have the ability to give quieter students a voice by using SLS tools.

At work

You love to read online discussions to see how students develop ideas in groups, and sharpen ideas through debate.

At home

You probably have the Reddit app on your phone, or enjoy trawling through comments on forum sites to understand different viewpoints.

Favorite SLS tool

Your favourite SLS tool probably includes the Interactive Thinking Tool to get your students to discuss topics during your lessons!

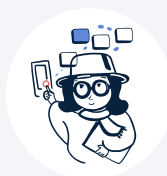

Helping others

Share your tried-and-true thinking routines (Interactive Thinking Tool) and suggest questions to stimulate higher order thinking!
